Mathematics and Climate

Mathematicians and scientists around the globe are focused on one of the most important challenges of our time — global climate change. In celebration of Mathematics Awareness Month, four panelists will give short talks, followed by questions and discussion.

-  Christopher Danforth, University of Vermont
-  Thomas Pfaff, Ithaca College
-  Zellman Warhaft, Cornell University
-  Mary Lou Zeeman, Cornell and Bowdoin College

Co-sponsored by the Cornell Mathematics Department and the Cornell Institute for Computational Sustainability.

Wednesday, April 8, 2009
at 5:00 PM in 228 Malott Hall (Bache Auditorium)

Refreshments will be served at 4:30 PM outside the auditorium.
